CHAPTER 4755-41
Code of Ethics

4755-41-01 Code of ethical conduct.

The following basic principles make up the code of ethical conduct for the practice of athletic training in the state of Ohio. When a person becomes a licensed athletic trainer they assume certain ethical obligations and responsibilities. An athletic trainer whose conduct is not in accordance with the principles set forth in the following code of ethical conduct shall be considered in violation of the Revised Code.

(A) Athletic trainers shall respect the rights, welfare, and dignity of all individuals.

(1) Athletic trainers shall show no discrimination in their efforts while performing duties.

(2) Athletic trainers shall provide care on the basis of the needs of the individual.

(3) Athletic trainers shall be committed to providing competent care consistent with both the requirements and limitations of their profession.

(4) Athletic trainers shall obtain informed consent from the patient.

(a) An athletic trainer, unless otherwise allowed by law, shall not provide patient care without disclosing to the patient or the patient’s representative, the benefits, substantial risks, if any, or alternatives to the recommended examination or intervention.

(b) Information relating to the athletic trainer-patient relationship is confidential and may not be communicated to a third party not involved in that patient’s care without the prior written consent of the patient or the patient’s representative, or unless otherwise allowed by law. Information must be disclosed when required by law for the protection of the patient or the public.

(5) Athletic trainers shall respect the rights, knowledge, and skills of colleagues and other health care professionals.
(6) Athletic trainers shall not, by their conduct, publicly discredit or lower the dignity of the members of the profession.

(7) Athletic trainers shall not engage in conduct that constitutes harassment or verbal or physical abuse of, or unlawful discrimination against, clients, students, and/or colleagues.

(C) Athletic trainers shall accept responsibility for the exercise of sound judgment.

(1) Athletic trainers shall not misrepresent in any manner, either directly or indirectly, their skills, training, professional credentials, identity, or services.

(2) Athletic trainers shall provide only those services for which they are qualified via education and/or experience.

(3) Athletic trainers shall not guarantee the results of any training, consultation, or therapeutic procedure. A reasonable statement of prognosis is not improper, but successful results are dependent upon many uncontrollable factors, hence, any warranty is deceptive and unethical.

(4) Athletic trainers shall not cheat or assist others in conspiring to cheat on the national certification examination or the state jurisprudence examination.

(D) Athletic trainers shall maintain and promote high standards in the provision of services.

(1) Athletic trainers should strive to achieve the highest level of competence.

(5) Athletic trainers shall only seek compensation that is reasonable for the athletic training services delivered. Athletic trainers, regardless of the practice setting, shall safeguard the public from unethical and unlawful business practices.

(6) Athletic trainers shall not intentionally or knowingly offer to pay or agree to accept any compensation, directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, in cash or in kind, to or from any person or entity for receiving or soliciting patients or patronage, regardless of the course of the compensation.

(7) Athletic trainers shall not influence a patient or the patient’s family to utilize, purchase, or rent any product or equipment based on the direct or indirect financial interests of the athletic trainer. Recommendations of product or equipment must be based solely on the therapeutic value of that product or equipment to the patient. An athletic trainer who owns or has a direct financial interest in an equipment or supply company must disclose the financial interest to the patient if the athletic trainer sells or rents, or intends to sell or rent, to the patient.

(8) Athletic trainers shall ensure the patient’s rights to participate fully in their care, including the patient’s right to select the athletic training provider, regardless of the practice setting.

(9) Athletic trainers shall safeguard the public from underutilization or overutilization of athletic training services.

(10) Athletic trainers shall provide accurate and relevant information to patients about the patients’ care.

(11) Athletic trainers shall provide accurate and relevant information to the public about athletic training services.

(12) Athletic trainers shall report to the athletic trainers section any unprofessional, incompetent, or illegal behavior of an athletic trainer of which the individual has knowledge.
(13) Athletic trainers shall adhere to the minimal standards of acceptable prevailing practice. Failure to adhere to minimal standards of practice, whether or not actual injury to a patient occurred, includes, but is not limited to, practice or use of tasks, knowledge, and skills that are not valid with the current professional practice of athletic training. These tasks, knowledge, and skills should reflect current practice trends and should be found in the athletic training literature.

(E) Athletic trainers shall not exploit persons served professionally.

(1) Athletic trainers shall not accept individuals for treatment if benefit cannot reasonably be expected.

(3) Athletic trainers shall not place financial gain above the welfare of the patient and shall not participate in any arrangement that exploits the patient.

(4) Athletic trainers shall not date or engage in any sexual activity with any client, or reengage in any conduct that may reasonably be interpreted by the client to be sexual, whether consensual or nonconsensual, while a practitioner/client relationship exists. In the case of minors, the practitioner/client relationship extends to the minor’s parent or guardian.

(a) An athletic trainer shall not intentionally expose or view a completely or partially disrobed client in the course of treatment if the exposure or viewing is not related to the client diagnosis or treatment under current practice standards.

(b) An athletic trainer shall not engage in a conversation with a client that is sexually explicit and unrelated to the athletic training plan of care.

(5) An athletic trainer shall not engage in sexual harassment of clients, the parent/guardian of a minor client, students, and/or colleagues. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, making unwelcome sexual advances, requesting sexual favors, and engaging in other verbal behavior or physical conduct of a sexual nature that results in:

(a) Withholding athletic training services to a client;
